—The advertising matter for the coming Chautauqua is now being circulated. Let everybody get busy, buy your tickets and tell your friends about it. As it is the first meeting of the kind ever held in Millersburg, it is the duty of everybody to do his or her part to make it a pronounced success. These meetings are always helpful and hopeful. Cynthia has had two meetings in the past two years, both being successful. That little city is now a Chautauqua center. Let us emulate her example. We can if we will. Remember that ours is an educational center and if we fall down in this we will not be what people think we are, or at least we will prove a failure upon one of the great lines of education. Open your homes, invite your friends and have them spend a week with you, as it will be a happy time for all concerned. Let's get busy and get happy. Adults $2 season ticket; children, fifteen years old and under, $1.

—The Pantagraph, of Bloomington, Ill., has the following to say relative to the late Mr. T. J. Vimont, a former citizen of Millersburg: "Thomas J. Vimont, a former prominent merchant, expired at 5:15 p. m., July 6, at the family home, 521 East Mulberry Street, following a six-weeks' illness with a complication of dropsy and uraemic poison. Deceased was born in Millersburg, Ky., May 5, 1841. Here he grew to manhood. Several years he spent attending Wisconsin State University, at Madison. As a young man he was a traveling man for the Ely-Walker Dry Goods Company, and spent several years engaged in business in St. Louis. On June 17, 1875, he was united in marriage to Virginia M. Boyd, in St. Louis. To this union were born three children, Nellie, Florence and Bessie, all of whom have passed away. Mrs. Vimont died January 26, 1896, in St. Louis. Mr. Vimont came to Bloomington in 1897, and in partnership with Mr. Koehn, conducted the Grand Leader, a dry goods store, where the E. M. Steele store is at present located. In the fire of 1900 the store was destroyed, but Mr. Vimont started in business again immediately after the fire. Mr. Koehn retired when the building was burned. March 14, 1900, Mr. Vimont was united in marriage to Mrs. Mabel Skinner, who, with one daughter, Charlotte Vimont, survives. He also leaves a sister, Miss Elizabeth Vimont, at Millersburg, Ky. Mr. Vimont continued to conduct the Grand Leader in partnership with Stephen Hazel, until 1906, when he removed to Paxton, where he conducted a similar establishment until June 1, when he was forced to sell his business on account of ill health. It is at this time that he returned to this city. Mr. Vimont has five brothers, Louis, Waldernes, John, William and Malcolm, and two sisters, Charlotte and Mary, all of whom have preceded him to the grave. Mr. Vimont was a member of the International Bible Students' Association. He was a man of tried and true integrity and uprightness. He was known throughout the State, where he traveled for many years. He suffered business reverses, but never once did he resort to questionable business to recoup his losses. He was a Christian of true character. He made friends readily and was a great favorite among children."

WAYSIDE WANDERERS BROUGHT IN BY SHERIFF MARSHALL

Partly disrobed and surrounded by a dozen mangy dogs, two young women, barefooted and apparently drugged, or under the influence of liquor, were found laying on the side of the road, near Mr. C. C. Lee's place, on the Maysville pike, yesterday afternoon. Two ladies passing in a buggy made the discovery. They alighted and endeavored to arouse the young women, but could not do so. The ladies covered the girls up the best they could and coming to the city notified the Sheriff's office.

Deputy Sheriff Marshall went to the scene in his automobile, and securing the assistance of passers-by, placed the girls in the machine and brought them to the Court House, from where they were later taken to the county jail.

The girls gave the name of Minnie Jackson, 25, and Pearl Jackson, 19, and in responses to queries stated that they had come from Bluefield, W. Va., where their father had deserted them, promising to meet them in Mt. Sterling. They were furnished with transportation by their father, and stopped in Maysville for a day, coming to Mt. Sterling later over the C. & O., by way of Ashland. Their delinquent parent did not meet them there and they walked from Mt. Sterling to where they were found yesterday.

They claimed they were enroute to some point in the South, just where they were unable to recall, where they had relatives.

The girls claimed to have taken taken the dogs found with them, from Maysville and Mt. Sterling, and said they brought them along because they (the girls) were lonesome.

As there was no charge placed against the girls they were held for safekeeping and will probably be released this morning.

FOR MINISTER TO CHILL.

Senator Camden, of Kentucky, called on Secretary of State Bryan, Wednesday, and asked for the appointment of Rev. T. C. Stackhouse, of Lexington, Ky., as United States Minister to Chili.

This is the first endorsement submitted by the new Kentucky Senator for an important office. Mr. Stackhouse is a Baptist minister, who is well known throughout Kentucky and neighboring States.

Senator Camden called at the War Department and secured the assignment of Lieutenant Arthur Underwood, of the regular army, as commandant at the Kentucky State University at Lexington.

PITTSBURG MAN TELLS INTERESTING STORY OF LINCOLN.

In an interesting letter to the Lexington Leader, Mr. David F. Patterson, of Pittsburg, tells an interesting story of the famous speech which Abraham Lincoln made in Cincinnati, in the latter part of February, 1861, and which has been said was the means of preventing Kentucky from joining the secession movement. Mr. Patterson, in his letter states that he was then a student at the Cincinnati Law School, and that his roommates were Benjamin Butterworth, of Ohio, afterward the famous Congressman, and Matthew Turney, afterward noted as a judge of Paris, Ky. Mr. Patterson further stated that Butterworth had been a reporter on a local paper, and that he had cheek and nerve enough for all three.

DEAD FISH COVER FIVE HUNDRED ACRES OF LAND.

Five hundred acres of dead fish line the shores of Wauponoca Lake at the Wauponoca Game Club, reserve in Arkansas, according to reports received at Memphis, Tenn. Lack of rain is assigned as the cause.

The lake, scarcely more than two feet deep at the deepest point, originally covered 1,500 acres of ground. During the last few weeks the lake has dried rapidly, and unless heavy rains come soon the entire sheet of water is apt to evaporate.

At normal stage this lake abounds with fish characteristic of local waters. The 500 acres of water which has been dissipated has killed thousands of the lake's fish. The shores are lined with dead black bass, carp and the like, and hundreds are dying daily because of insufficient water.

POPULAR YOUNG LEXINGTON MAN DROWNED IN MICHIGAN.

David Barrow, Jr., aged nineteen years, the son of Dr. David Barrow, the well-known Lexington surgeon, and well known in Paris society circles, was drowned in Lake Michigan, near Ludington, Mich., late Tuesday afternoon. Young Barrow and a companion, Edward Leavenworth, a fellow-student at the Students' Military Camp, near Ludington, started out in a canoe for a trip on the lake after the noon lunch, although the lake was very rough. When some distance out a sudden squall struck the frail craft overturning it. Leavenworth swam ashore, leaving Barrow clinging to the capsized boat while he secured help from the coast guards. The supposition is that young Barrow became exhausted from clinging to the canoe and dropped off and sank before aid could reach him. Life savers and the coast patrol made ineffectual efforts to recover the body.

Young Barrow went to Ludington a few days ago to join a United States Government military training party. He was well known among the younger set in Paris society circles, and the news of his tragic death was received here with great sorrow by his friends and those of his distinguished father.

Though the efforts of the beach patrol and of the men in boats, searching for the body were tireless, it has not been found.

Throughout the day and far into the night searching parties continued to patrol the beach. Twenty-five or thirty boats were hurried to the scene of the accident as soon as daylight appeared, and continued searching that portion of the lake until driven in by darkness. At last accounts the search was still unavailing last night.
